

YMCA Recognizes Andrews' Contributions

The Andrew family has been directly involved with the Lafayette YMCA for decades. When the YMCA facility was built off 18th Street, Jim Andrew's father, Jesse C. Andrew, Jr. was on the YMCA board. During the 12 year planning and construction phases of the new Intersection Connection (YMCA, Ivy Tech, Junior Achievement and Franciscan Health), Jim was an active board member, and Tom Andrew has served on the YMCA board since 2017.

At the most recent YMCA board meeting held on July 21st, the Andrew family was named the YMCA's Family of the Year. Paul Cramer, the Lafayette Family YMCA's CEO, remarked "For the YMCA it was a great honor to recognize the entire Andrew family as our 2020 YMCA Family of the Year. The Andrew family has been an outstanding example of hard work, strong family traditions and exemplary community service. True role models for all of us to look up to and aspire to be."

As part of the board meeting's agenda, the Board of Director plaques from the 18th Street YMCA and new YMCA were unveiled together representing the community's long standing support of the local Y. Again Paul Cramer noted, "Jim has been one of my key inspirations over the last 12 years to see this project through. Today is a very long anticipated and wonderful day and we are honored to have Jim unveil the Board recognition plaques for both the old and new YMCAs. It's also very special that Tom is following in his father's and grandfather's footsteps in building stronger communities through the YMCA! We are happy that Tom and the Andrew family is continuing to serve and strengthen communities through the YMCA!"

BAGL Has Fun Activity for Kids

"The Builders Association of Greater Lafayette wanted to do something fun for the kids as many of them sat home this summer because of the pandemic", noted Mary Ellis, BAGL's Executive Director.

So they created the BAGL LEGO Challenge for kids ages 6 -18 who resided in Tippecanoe County and the six surrounding counties. Awards were given by age group and included a gift card to a local restaurant.

Taking top honors in one of the age brackets was Finley Andrew, Jay Andrew's daughter.
